GIRL FIGHTS BULL.

To save her father's life, Marie Jennings, only 12 years old, gave battle to an infuriated bull on the farm where she lives at Marlsboro, N. J., Monday. Again and again she was knocked down and tossed, but with the aid of a Newfoundland dog she succeeded in subduing the animal, although not until her father had received injuries which will probably cause his death.

Rufus Jennings, who is 55 years old, was in his barnyard in the afternoon when the bull, which had always been considered docile, suddenly attacked him. Catching him unaware, the beast threw him against a fence several times, pinned him to the ground and attempted to gore him.

His cries attracted his young daughter and she ran to his aid, with the Newfoundland at her heels. Unmindful of danger to herself, the girl tried to drag her father away from the bull. This further angered the animal, which turned on her.

She would have been killed outright but for the dog, which caught one of the bull's hoofs between its teeth and turned the attack upon himself.

Thereupon the girl stunned and bruised though she was, caught her half conscious father and dragged him from the yard, while the battle between the dog and the bull was still waging. The dog escaped as soon as Jennings was safe from further injury.

WHIPPED BY THE JUDGE.

Salvatore Purpura, Leonardo Esperito and Thomas Brindisi, each aged about 12 years, were brought before Judge O'Connor, in the City Court at Utica, N. Y., yesterday afternoon, on the charge of stealing a bicycle. The boys denied the theft with a persistency that could not be shaken.

"You are the worst lot of liars that has come before me in a long time," Judge O'Connor finally declared, "and I have a large variety every day.

Then the judge ordered Officer Maurice Foley, big of limb and strong of arm, to bring the three prisoners into the inner office of the court. The judge led the delegation to the secluded chamber, closed the door, and immediately there ensued a succession of yells, cries, thumps and bangs. When the session ended three tear-stained, shrinking lads emerged from the court office and headed for the street in double-quick time.

Judge O'Connor mounted the judicial bench and made this entry after the names of the boys on the court record:

"Walloped and discharged."

TO DEVELOP TURKEY.

Believing Turkish investments safe, for the first time in the country's history, and assured of a chance to make them without paying blackmail in a dozen directions, foreign capitalists' agents are literally stampeding into Constantinople.

Considering the stage of its civilization and its proximity to the orient the sultan's realm is regarded as the least developed land on earth. The opportunity for reaping enormous returns is deemed so bright that the influx into the capital is reaching the proportions of a miners' rush to a new mineral field or a settlers' race for newly opened lands.

Negotiations are pending between the prospective investors for railroads, street car lines, electrical plants, telephones, telegraphs, water works, lighting plants, mines and all kinds of trading enterprises.

As an illustration of the country's backwardness and the handicap under which capitalists have suffered, Constantinople, a city of nearly 1,000,000 population, has never had a telephone system because the blackmail demanded by the government grafters precluded all possibility of profit on the franchise.

Don't be afraid to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to your children. It contains no opium or other harmful drug. It always cures. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

BLACK HUNDREDS.

Revelation of the crimes of the Russian Black Hundreds, organized to punish Jews and political offenders, have so shocked the Russian public that today there is not a man of standing who will admit connection with the bands. Until the organizations degenerated into bands of common murderers and highwaymen, aristocrats and even priests were enrolled in their membership and lent an air of semi-respectability to their outrages. Within the last few days the police have proved several local branches of the group to be providing handsome livings for their members through wanton murders and bold robberies. Several of the leaders have been convicted and sentenced to Siberia.

TO RESTORE LANDS.

The restitution to the government by Sultan Abdul Hamid of crown lands, the annual revenue of which is $2,000,000, has done more to strengthen the sultan with the dominant young Turks party than anything since the granting of the legislation and there is an appreciable cessation in the talk of ultimately forcing him to abdicate. All the lands ceded by the sultan will be used as guarantee for new loans with which the government will pay off many debts of long standing and, also, increase its civil list.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, SEPT. 10, 1908.

GREAT store of coal, both anthracite and bituminous, has been discovered in Canadian territory on the north Pacific coast. The California manufacturing interests need this fuel supply and observe with regret that it is falling into the hands of monopolists. "This coal," ruefully says a California republican journal, "ought to be as cheap along this coast as Pittsburg coal is at New Orleans. In course of a little time it would be if the infernal tariff on coal and lumber were abolished." As a means of remedy this journal sharply declares every stand-patter candidate for congress wherever he shows his head should be marked for defeat. Commenting upon this the Philadelphia Record says:

There is no part of the country, east or west, north or south, where the inequalities and iniquities of the tariff are not a continuing calamity. Tariff reform is an immediate necessity. It is of ominous import when so many republican journals in various parts of the country, with the election of a president and congress approaching, find it necessary to kick over the party traces on the tariff issue.

DR. CHAUFFARD recently brought before the Paris Academy of Medicine the tendency to malign the oyster. The oyster, in the doctor's opinion, is a perfect food, excellent for both children and invalids generally. He protests against the superstition of only eating oysters in months in which the letter "r" appears. Commenting on the subject, "The London Globe" says that Dr. Chauffard had his prototype in Whitstable in the middle of the last century in Dr. Williams, a local practitioner, whose principal prescription was oysters and stout. The doctor was looked upon as a success, and was very popular. His portrait in oil presiding at the punch bowl adorns the dining room of the Bear and Key, an ancient Whitstable hotel. Oysters and beer are taken pretty generally in Alexandria without a doctor's prescription and the people of this city are quite healthy and long lived.

TANNERS throughout the country are organizing to demand that when Congress shall take up the task of tariff revision it shall repeal the duty of 15 per cent. on hides. There never was a more indefensible duty than that. At the demand of Senator Lodge and the Massachusetts shoe manufacturers Mr. McKinley backed down from such a duty. But under Mr. Dingley the packers carried their point. Mr. Lodge, submitted and it is believed that the only way of getting rid of that tax now is to elect Mr. Bryan and a democratic House of Representatives.

THE fact that quite a number of the large Scranton, Pa., industries, the operation of which makes necessary the use of a considerable quantity of coal, are storing enough coal to last them several months has caused much speculation in that region as to the probability of a long suspension next spring, when the present agreement between the miners' union, and the coal operators expires in April. It is well that the suspension will not take place till after cold weather and it is hoped that by spring something may occur to prevent another coal strike.

BISHOP HOOD, of Fayetteville, N. C., the oldest bishop in the African Methodist Episcopal Church, has issued a statement in which he advises the colored voters to stand by the republican party. Why, they will do this anyway without a bishop's advice.

JUDGE GOULD in Washington yesterday deferred his decision until after election in the contempt cases against Samuel Gompers and John Mitchell. The republicans can afford to lose no votes in November.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

A delegation of seventeen representative Philadelphians, piloted by Representatives Bingham, Moore, Foulkerad and Moon called upon Secretaries Metcalf and Wright, today, to ask participation by the army and navy in the Founder's Day celebration at the Pennsylvania Metropolis during the first week in October. The occasion is the 225th anniversary of the founding of Philadelphia. The delegation wanted 13 United States vessels, representing the colonial states, to sail up the Delaware, and Secretary Metcalf promised to send them and to detail Admiral Arnold to represent the department. The secretary said he would try to participate himself. The delegation also visited acting Secretary of State Adee, and requested him to invite Great Britain, France, Germany, Holland and Sweden to send a battleship each.

A tropical storm has made its appearance in the West Indies, its center being north of San Juan, Porto Rico, this morning. Rains continue along the gulf and south Atlantic coasts, and in Georgia and Florida. In northeastern Florida the rainfall has been excessive, 6.46 inches having fallen at Jacksonville in the last 48 hours. In practically all other districts other than these referred to, fair weather continues.

Gen. Peter C. Hains, whose sons are now under arrest charged with the murder of Wm. E. Annis at New York, was at the War Department today to consult with the Judge Advocate General's office. Capt. Hains' leave of absence has expired and owing to his confinement in jail he is, of course, unable to report for duty. Technically he is liable to court martial for failure to report. It was with the idea of seeking the proper course that his father came here for consultation today. He was advised that his son should apply for an extension of his leave of absence. Gen. Hains would not discuss any of the features of the tragedy.

In view of the stand taken by the officials of the A. F. of L. in favor of the democratic national ticket, unusual interest attaches to the regular quarterly meeting of the executive council of that organization which opened today for a three days' session. President Gompers admitted, before the meeting, that political members would occupy much of the attention of the council. Among other matters to be discussed will be the contempt proceedings now in progress against Gompers and his fellow officials on the charge of violating the injunction with reference to the boycotting of the Bucks Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis. Those present at today's meeting were President Gompers, Secretary Morrison, and Vice President James O'Connell, Max Morris, James Duncan and Joseph F. Valentine.

Signal corps officers here today expressed the belief that the Wright aeroplane will far exceed the requirements of the War Department.

A fire in Kann's store this morning brought out many of the fire engines and caused much excitement. The flames were put out by a chemical engine before much damage had been done.

Virginia News.

The State Retail Merchant's Association of Virginia met at Staunton yesterday. New officers were elected, with M. Umstadter as president.

John Bates, the negro convict who knocked down and disarmed Guard Adams at the State convict camp, near The Plains, in Fauquier county on Tuesday, and escaped, was captured at Manassas yesterday.

Mr. Haslett McKim Glazebrook, of Elizabeth, N. J., and Miss Emily Hoomes Robinson, daughter of the late Benjamin Hoomes Robinson, of Essex county, Va., were married yesterday afternoon at Locust Grove, the home of Judge John M. White, in Charlottesville.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Thaddeus H. Green, of Ruby, and Elsie L. Dodd, of Tacketts Mill; Samuel T. Wakeman and Mabel Row, both of Brockroad, and to C. W. Edwards, of Marshall, and Evelyn B. Kerns, of Rectortown.

Mr. Conrad Johnson has been appointed principal of a large school near Onancock, Accomac county, and will leave here tomorrow to assume his new duties. Mr. Johnson graduated with distinction from the Virginia Military Institute at the last session.

Lee Strother, colored, will be the last man to go to the gallows by court order in Virginia. He was hanged today in Madison county for attempted criminal assault upon a white girl, Governor Swanson refusing to grant him a further respite. Electrocution after this will be the mode of capital punishment in Virginia.

Thomas L. Hisgen, of Massachusetts, candidate for president on the Hearst Independence League ticket, spoke at Odd Fellows' Hall, Norfolk, last night. Mayor James G. Riddick introduced him. Clement L. Pollock, of Massachusetts, and John Temple Graves, running mate of Mr. Hisgen, for the vice presidency, also spoke.

Fire originating in the residence of Chas. Haight, at Third avenue and Alder street, Chestnut Hill, Richmond, at 8:30 o'clock yesterday swept rapidly southward, and within two hours three houses had been destroyed and six families rendered homeless. The blaze is believed to have resulted from an oil stove left in the house after Haight and his family had gone on a picnic.

The state camp, Patriotic Order Sons of America, which met in Portsmouth in annual convention on Tuesday, finished its business yesterday and adjourned to meet next year at Colonial Beach. New officers elected are: President, A. C. Nelson, of Richmond; vice president, J. C. Cramer, of Roanoke; master of forms, T. B. Ivey, of Petersburg; secretary, F. W. Alexander, of Oak Grove; treasurer, J. H. Brunner, of Falls Church.

Being aroused by the noise of some one escaping from his home yesterday morning about 3 o'clock, L. W. Webber, of Lynchburg, rushed to the basement to find that the intruder had set fire to a bed not occupied that night. The would-be firebug made good his escape down the hill in the rear of the home. The fire department arrived in time to prevent great damage. Webber, his wife, and infant made their escape in night attire.

Mrs. Elizabeth McKee, widow of Dean McKee, a Frederick county farmer, died at her home near Winchester yesterday from injuries sustained in a runaway accident last Monday. Mrs. McKee was dragged down a rocky hill and the flesh and one ear were torn from her head, leaving the skull exposed. She had since lingered in an unconscious condition. She was 34 years old and was a native of Pennsylvania.

According to a well-known attorney of Hampton, the republican national committee has decided to make an attempt to have the veterans of the National Soldiers' Home registered for participation in the approaching national and congressional election of citizens of Elizabeth City county. This attorney states that he has been retained to represent the old soldiers, and that he believes he is going to win his fight to have them declared eligible for registration in the county.

Fitzgerald Released.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—The case against Geo. Fitzgerald, accused of stealing $173,000 from the United States Sub-Treasury here was dismissed today by Judge Chetlain after Sub-Treasurer Boldenweck had refused to produce the records of his office as evidence.

When the court dismissed the case, he stated that hearing of evidence at this time would prejudice the investigation of the theft now being made by the government. He declared the government's interest in the case was paramount and he had no right to embarrass it by insisting that the case be pushed.

News of the Day.

A Maryland oyster police boat has been ordered to Sinepuxent bay to help in the war on illegal oystering.

Gen. Leonard Wood, U. S. A., was thrown while watching the German army maneuvers, yesterday, but escaped unhurt.

Talbot county sent the first new cob corn of the season to Baltimore yesterday, when a lot of 24 bags arrived for sale. The corn was dry and well filled, and was sold at $3 30 a barrel.

Dean A. Smith, of Reese, Mich., a wealthy retired farmer, yesterday visited his brother, P. J. Smith, of Cumberland, Md., whom he had not seen for 46 years.

The republican national committee has decided to recognize the republican organization in West Virginia which nominated Charles W. Swisher for governor as the regular party of that State.

Mrs. Frank Galler who, it is alleged, as a feminine "Black Hand," has for several weeks been terrorizing business men, was captured at Bessemer, Mich., yesterday after a gun fight with officers. She is the wife of a miner.

Judge Alton B. Parker declared at Washington that he is not willing to accept the nomination for governor of New York. The judge will entertain William J. Bryan next Sunday, and the nominee will go to Baltimore Monday morning.

G. M. T. Bass, aged 83, who fell from the trestle bridge across the Appomattox, died at the Petersburg Hospital yesterday. For many years prior to and after the civil war he was principal of the West ward public school there.

The police department of Lynchburg has been hard at work since Tuesday afternoon in an effort to locate a white man, who is alleged to have sent a box of poisoned candy to Dixie Simpson, a white woman, who lives at Fourth and Jackson streets.

Mystery surrounds the visit at Norfolk of Prince Ranji Smile, whose nativity is Kelat, Beluchistan. The prince arrived yesterday from Atlantic City with 7 attendants and 22 trunks. When seen by a reporter he declined to make any statement regarding his visit to that section.

An autopsy on the body of a Charlotte, N. C., citizen, John J. Neale, a middle-aged man, reveals that death was due to pellagra, a disease caused by eating musty or fermented corn. It is the first case of the kind ever brought to the attention of the medical profession of that city.

Suddenly attacked with acute indigestion and heart disease as she was walking from a local theatre to the Dewey Hotel, last night, Miss Elnore Lizer, a school teacher of Newark, N. J., who was visiting in Washington, died before she could be taken to the Emergency Hospital.

Mr. John Kronmiller, the republican organization candidate, was nominated for Congress in the Third Washington district, yesterday, receiving more plurality than there were votes cast for Mr. Elmer J. Jones, the Wachter candidate. Congressmen Wolf and Gill, democrats, and Mr. John Philip Hill, republican, had no opposition.

A special from Oxford, Miss., quotes former United States Senator W. V. Sullivan as follows with reference to the Lynching Tuesday night: "I led the mob which lynch Nelse Patton, and I'm proud of it. I directed every movement of the mob and I did everything I could to see that he was lynched. Out a white woman's throat! And a negro! Of course I wanted him lynched."

Wall street professed ignorance yesterday of the report from Copenhagen that M. Alberti, former minister of justice of Denmark, whose savings bank failed because of losses of $2,500,000, had speculated heavily in Wall street. Representatives of several international banking houses said they were sure the Danish cabinet officer did no trading directly with New York concerns.

That some parts of the railroad tunnels in Washington are not lighted is developed by the recent inquiry into the death of Mrs. Lottie Harrison, who was thrown from a train and killed in one of them. About fifteen arc lights are used near the large electric fans used to clear the tunnel of smoke, but from the fans to the mouth of the tunnel, about 300 yards, no lights are used.

Burglars, Tuesday night, made a rich haul in the postoffice at Adamston, near Clarksburg, W. Va., securing $125 in cash, $300 in stamps and more than $100 in jewelry, the latter being part of the stock of the general store of D. R. Martin, kept in the same room with the postoffice. It is said that the safe from which the booty was taken had not been locked. The robbers entered by forcing open the side door of the store. Mr. Martin's residence is adjoining the store.

In a desperate shooting affray with two burglars, whom he met on the street at North and Grand avenue, Los Angeles, Cal., shortly before 10 o'clock yesterday morning, Capt. Walter Auble, of the city police force, was shot three times and probably fatally wounded. One of the men, Fred Horning, a chauffeur, was captured but the man who did the shooting, Carl Sutherland, a waiter, escaped. Captain Auble was former chief of police of Los Angeles.

Conspicuous by their absence from the republican state convention at Springfield, Ill., yesterday were most of the Yates leaders. This created the greatest sensation of Illinois politics in years. Speaker Cannon and former Secretary of the Treasury Shaw were the "key noters." The platform endorses A. J. Hopkins for re-election to the United States Senate. Governor Deneen was also endorsed. Speaker Cannon was temporary and permanent chairman.

In the meeting at Lynchburg, yesterday, Harrisonburg was chosen as the next city in which the State Association of Rural Letter Carriers will meet. New officers elected are: President, R. J. Crutchfield, of Groseclose; vice president, A. B. Glover, of Weyers Cave; secretary and treasurer, C. B. Conner, Lexington. C. B. Conner, of Lexington, and F. S. Fussell, of Henrico county, were elected delegates to the national convention, October 6, in Omaha, Neb.

Theodore Shriner was accidently killed yesterday morning in a singular manner. He was operating a portable steam sawmill in the grove of Mrs. Emanuel Hiltabraidie, near Mayberry, Md., getting out timber when the saw became obstructed in some manner and he attempted to dislodge the obstruction with a handspike which was driven by the immediate momentum given the saw with such force against his stomach and abdomen that his liver was crushed and he died within an hour.

Turning back from his swing through the eastern states to again take up the battle in the middle west, William J. Bryan will spend Sunday, September 20, as the guest of former Judge Alton B. Parker at his home at Esopus, N. Y., and that evening go to Albany, where the candidate will spend the night at Wolfert's Roost as the guest of former Senator David B. Hill. Next Sunday Mr. Bryan will spend at Deer Park, Md., as the guest of National Committeeman John T. McGraw, of West Virginia, and former Senator Henry G. Davis.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Charles K. Lord, president of the Goldfield and Tonopah railroad and former vice president of the Baltimore and Ohio, died at Philadelphia today.

At daylight today a party of searchers found the body of Mrs. Ashton Harvey wife of a New York attorney who disappeared from her home early last evening in South Lake near Short Hill, N. J.

As a partial compensation to the vineyard owners of France for the practical destruction of this year's crop, it was announced today that the State had exempted the vineyards from taxation. The loss to the vineyard owners is now placed at $20,000,000.

Alton B. Parker and former Judge Morgan J. O'Brien will be the temporary and permanent chairman of the democratic State convention of New York. Mr. Parker and Mr. O'Brien will be allowed to decide between themselves who shall be temporary and who permanent chairman.

R. H. Thomas, president of the New York Exchange, announced this morning that the governing committee had ordered the sale of the stock exchange seat of John G. McIntyre, of the bankrupt firm of T. A. McIntyre & Co., who recently failed for approximately a million dollars.

Fearing an attack on the jail by the increasing number of citizens in their efforts to get Henry Bushman, confessed assailant of Miss Anna Doherty, of Kenosha, the sheriff early today threw another cordon of special officers around the jail at Racine, Wis. Bushman was brought there from Kenosha last night after he had been identified by Miss Doherty. He was arrested while asleep with a shot gun at his side.

President Roosevelt's African hunting trip will be dramatized before the trip has been made. Next year while the president is chasing lions in darkest Africa, New York theatrical audiences will be laughing at the adventures he is supposed to have encountered. The trip will be made the subject for the "Mimic World of 1909," whose billboard alias will be "Teddy in Darkest Africa." Addison Burkhardt will write the book and Melville Ellis will furnish the music.

Henry G. Calliott, the operator at the Iron Mountain Depot at Bismarck, Mo., successfully resisted two masked robbers early today but may die as the result of the encounter. Shortly after midnight Calliott was startled by the command to throw up his hands. Instead of complying, he made a dive for his revolver and opened fire on the bandits. In the duel which followed Calliott was probably mortally wounded. The robbers fled without attempting to crack the station safe. A posse is in pursuit.

The wedding jewels of Mrs. John Ward, who was Miss Jeane Reid, daughter of the American ambassador, almost fell a prey to burglars last night. Thieves entered Mrs. Ward's apartments in Guildford, England, during her absence and secured gems and wedding gifts worth a vast fortune. They had laid their booty on a table, preparatory to packing it in grips, when they were scared away and escaped through a window. So hurried was the flight of the burglars that they took with them only a few small pieces, worth about $500.

It was officially confirmed in Paris today that Emperor William will go to the French frontier tomorrow, making a flying visit to the edge of the province of Vosges. It will be the first visit of a German emperor to French territory since the Franco-Prussian war, nearly forty years ago. The emperor has been following the German army manuevers in Alsace-Lorraine, territory taken from the French. He is close to the French frontier and has decided to touch French soil again. Preparations are being made to give the kaiser a welcome as befits his rank.

The color line was drawn today at Highland Park College at Des Moines, Ia., when President O. H. Longwell dismissed the negro students and announced that no more would be admitted. The feeling against the blacks in Des Moines is strong. Longwell says the white students take exceptions to the social equality in permitting negroes to attend the college.

The Government Looses.

Philadelphia, Sept. 10.—The commodity clause in the Hepburn act, under which the government brought suit against half dozen big railroads owning coal mines in Pennsylvania, to oust them from specific possession of the properties was knocked out in a 20,000 word opinion handed down by Judge Gray of the United States Circuit Court here today.

Briefly the constitutionality of the law is attacked on the ground that it is contrary to State's rights and, therefore, illegally interferes with the power of a soverign commonwealth to conduct it's own business. From beginning to end the majority opinion is a clean knockout for the government.

The commidity clause of the Hepburn act, prohibits all common carriers from engaging in any other business than that of transportation and required the absolute abandonment by them of coal, oil and other business after May 1, of this year.

In accordance with an agreement between the Department of Justice and leading railroad companies, the enforcement of the clause was suspended pending a decision from the Supreme Court on its constitutionality. The promptness with which the court has acted at Philadelphia is pointed to by Department of Justice officials as assuring early consideration of the question by the Supreme Court of the United States.

Plea of Insanity.

Boston, Sept. 10.—Insanity will be the defense of Chester S. Jordan, the self-confessed murderer of his wife. The principal in the Somerville trunk murder will have one of New York's most noted criminal lawyers, William F. S. Hart, to defend him. Hart gained fame several years ago by his defense of Police Captain Chapman, in the sensational Seely dinner case.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Standard Oil Suit.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—The reply of the Standard Oil Company to the petition of the government for a rehearing of the case in which the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, Judge Grosscup, presiding, ruled out the $29,000,000 fine imposed by United States Judge Landis was filed at 10 a. m. today. Judge Landis originally imposed the fine after the Standard had been convicted of accepting rebates from the Chicago and Alton Railroad.

The reply meets vigorously the arguments presented by the government in its petition tending to show that the appellate court erred in reversing Judge Landis' decision and in remanding the case to the lower court for retrial.

Judges Grosscup, Seaman and Baker will hear arguments later and the decision as to whether or not they will revise their former opinion is expected sometime in October.

The government's petition was filed August 21, twenty days being allowed by statute for the defendant to file an answer. The time limit would have expired at midnight tonight.

The Standard's answer replies in detail to the government's contention that the appellate court erred in declaring that Judge Landis was wrong in ruling that the government was not required to prove that a shipper had knowledge of the lawful rates on the theory that ignorance of the law is not a defense.

The Standard contended that, in making such a ruling, the trial judge not only removed the burden of proof from the government but also deprived the defendant of any benefits he might get from the presentation of such evidence.

One of the principal features of the government's petition was the suggestion that the appellate court certify to the Supreme Court of the United States the question whether it was necessary for the government to show beyond a reasonable doubt as a part of its case, that the shipper knew what the lawful published and filed rate was. The government's petition declared that the appellate court's ruling that it was necessary for the government to produce such proof would make the Interstate Commerce act a "mere will o' the wisp of legislation, a phantom statute."

The Standard, in its answer, declares that the apellate court having already tried and decided the case the suggestion of certification is not a proper one to be made or entertained.

Should the appellate court deny the government's petition for a rehearing, it is believed that Attorney General Bonaparte will order United States District Attorney Sims to take the case to the Supreme Court of the United States on a writ of error.

This would have the effect of bringing the whole case, in its present shape with the $29,000,000 fine attached, before the highest court in the land.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Coincident with the answer today of the Standard Oil Company to the government's action for rehearing in the Grosscup $29,000,000 fine decision Attorney General Bonaparte and Commissioner of Corporations Herbert Knox Smith are in consultation with the president who is believed to be aiding in plans to pin the Standard up.

Count Tolstoy.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 10.—Despite the government's prohibition of official celebrations in honor of Count Tolstoy's eightieth birthday, today is virtually a holiday all over Russia in honor of the event. The efforts of the government have acted as a boomerang and instead of checking the wave of Tolstoy sentiment, they have only served to increase the enthusiam for the aged reformer. The fact that the people have practically ignored the governmental edict increases the embarrassment of the officials. The schools and universities were not allowed to close, but they may as well be, for nearly all the students absented themselves. Every attempt at a formal demonstration has been suppressed by the police, the people quietly submitting, not to the police however, but to the urgent request of Tolstoy himself.

The police are fearful that before night the people will attempt to disregard the prohibition placed upon them and are preparing for serious clashes. Theatres all over the country are closed to prevent demonstration by Tolstoy's admirers. Several newspapers have been temporarily suppressed for criticizing the Holy Synod's recent denunciation of Tolstoy and appealing to the people to ignore his birthday. Count Tolstoy is spending the day quietly at his home at Yasnaya Poliana. Hundreds have call to offer their congratulations but owing to the count's illness, the countess is not admitting any of the friends to the sick chamber. Messages have been received from every civilized country.

New York Stock Market.

New York, September 10.—Price movements in the first hour showed pronounced irregularity, a number of stocks including some purely speculative issues being marked up while there were indications of selling in the heretofore market leaders causing moderate declines in a large number of them.

Losses of moderate amounts were sustained in a number of industrials. After the first hour Southern Railway showed a 1 1-8 advance.

Too Frisky for Her.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 10.—Martha Bodenbender was granted a divorce yesterday from her husband, John Bodenbender. The woman is 76 years of age, and her husband about the same. The couple were married 25 years ago.

In her testimony before the referee Mrs. Bodenbender stated that her husband liked younger woman and abused her.

LETTER TO B WHEATLEY & SON
Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sirs: What do you think the Editor pays us for these educational Letters on paint and painting and keeping property painted? What are they worth to the people and what are they worth to him?

Is public wealth the Editor's wealth? Is public loss the Editor's loss? Is the Editor partner with his contituency? The answer is yes to all these questions.

The science of paint is simple and easy; zinc-lead-and-oil and a dryer is almost all of it.

The science of buying paint is easier yet: Devoe. A baby can say it.

The science of painting isn't your science; the science of hiring the painter is: "What'll you take to paint my barn two coats of the least-gallons paint?" And the answer is $5 a gallon.

The science of keeping property painted is: use the least-gallons paint, and do it again when the property needs it.

Yours truly,
F W DEVOE & Co.

The Dreyfus Affair.

Paris Sept. 10.—Louis Gregori, the Paris journalist, who on June 4th shot Major Alfred Dreyfus in the Pantheon during the canonization services over the body of Emil Zola, was placed on trial today in the court of Assizes. What was expected to be a sensational trial was begun with such a lack of interest that it is possible the case will be dropped entirely. All the important witnesses, save the principals themselves, failed to appear.

Major Dreyfus was presented and was the center of an interesting group. Gregori appeared calm. During the reading of the accusation against him, which charged him with attempting voluntary homicide with premeditation, he assumed a cynical aspect. In answering the charge, which was read by the president, Gregori spoke in a clear, firm voice. "I acknowledge that I went to the Pantheon with the intention of provoking a scandal, but my purposes were not against Dreyfus personally, whom I do not hate, but against Dreyfusism and the politics that the whole canonization ceremony stood for. I fired, standing near Dreyfus, aiming at his arm, knowing that it was impossible to injure him seriously." After Gregori's statement court was adjourned.

The Iowa Deadlock.

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 10—Having carried out their determination to prevent the election to the United States senate for the short term of Governor Cummins by dead locking the legislature, the "stand patters" today considered the advisability of combining their strength on one candidate. The belief today is that Congressman Walter I. Smith will be the "stand pat" candidate. Both Houses met in joint session at noon today to ballot again for senator.

The second joint ballot by the legislature on the United States senatorship was taken this afternoon. Mr. Cummins received 64 votes, Claude Porter, democrat, 48, and the rest were scattering.

The Next House.

Olney, Ills., Sept. 10.—The next House of Representatives will be democratic was the promise made to William Jennings Bryan when he arrived here today. Congressman Lloyd, of Missouri, chairman of the congressional campaign committee, echoes this sentiment. Bryan passed a comfortable night in his new car, the Olivette, which has been engaged for the eastern stumping trip. He left Peoria, Ills., about midnight and the car was side tracked in the Matoon yards until 7.30 this morning, when the trip through the southern end of the state and into Indiana began. Bryan was scheduled for three speeches and several car end talks today. The first was here where he spoke to the farmers and workers.

Romantic Marriage.

Lowell, Mass., Sept. 10.—The romance of a poor farm hand and his wealthy employer reached its culmination today with the brilliant wedding of Miss Maud Parham and Chester Queen. Miss Parham, who is young, worth $100,000 and sole owner and operator of one of the finest farms in Tyngsboro, employed Queen as a laborer last fall at $1 a day. The young man's sole capital was good looks, health and abundant energy. In a few months he became sub-boss of the farm. Daily contact with his beautiful employer resulted this summer in their engagement. The wedding ceremony today at the bride's handsome home was a notable affair. All the farm employes attended as well as a number of Lowell society people.

Battleship Launched.

Portsmouth, Sept. 10.—The English battleship St. Vincent of 19,250 tons displacement and the largest war vessel afloat, was launched today amid a scene of unusual brilliancy.

As Countess Beauchamp christened the ship when she glided smoothly down the ways bands played, thousands cheered and the national anthem was sung.

The work of completing the armament of St. Vincent and fitting her for active service will be rushed with all possible speed.

London, Sept. 10.—Following the launching of the British battleship St. Vincent at Portsmouth this morning, the Brazilian battleship Mimasgeraes, of 20,000 tons, was launched this afternoon at New Castle. The Brazilian ship is slightly larger than the St. Vincent.

Kodol will, without doubt, make your stomach strong and will almost instantly relieve you of all the symptoms of indigestion. Get a bottle of it today. It is sold here by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Rioting in Glasgow.

Glasgow, Sept. 10—Following a night of rioting between a mob of 7,000 of Glasgow's unemployed and an augumented force of mounted and foot policemen, the city today clearly shows the effect of one of the wildest experiences in its history.

The streets are littered, scores of houses are damaged, windows smashed, and hundreds of terror-stricken citizens are guarding their property with arms, fearing a recurrence of the outbreak.

Beginning at midnight, when the mob of unemployed, under the leadership of socialistic agitators, attempted to make a raid on the aristocratic residential district of the city and continuing until dawn, the police were in a constant clash with the mob, which broke up into scores of small detachments at the first assault by the mounted police. These detachments were pursued all over the city, the police remorselessly clubbing the rioters wherever an outrage was attempted.

The city is still in a chaotic condition and it is not known how many were injured in the prolonged melee. The mob carried away hundreds of men who were injured by the police and several deaths will undoubtedly result from the fierce tactics the police were forced to adopt. Many of the mob were armed and shots were frequently fired.

The entire city was awakened by the commotion and citizens everywhere armed themselves, fearing attacks from the mob.

At dawn the rioters dispersed and comparative quiet was resumed.

The entire police force of the city, with hundreds of reserves, is patrolling the streets. The situation is the most serious that has confronted the city in years. Thousands of people are out of employment, the estimates running all the way from 25,000 to 180,000. Socialistic agitators have seized the occasion to stir up a dangerous strife and the officials are alarmed at the prospect of future demonstrations.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is especially recommended for children. It tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. Sold by W F. Creighton & Co.

The Eucharist Congress.

London, Sept. 10.—Fearing a hostile demonstration by anti-Catholics as a result of the agitation by the Protestant alliance, the cardinals in attendance at the Eucharist Congress conferred today as to the wisdom of abandoning the parade which was scheduled for Sunday.

They have not announced their decision but it is believed that it will be against the parade, which was to have been the most brilliant feature of the congress.

Personally the cardinals and other churchmen are not afraid but owing to the inflamed state of mind of many Protestant radicals, they realize the possibility of bloodshed and rioting.

The activity of the Protestant Alliance in invoking an old English law which has been considered a dead letter for years against the Catholic demonstration, has aroused a feeling of resentment all over the empire.

The home office would have paid no attention to the law, had the alliance not forced the issue. The king, who is at Doncaster, ignored the protest, and Herbert K. Gladstone, secretary of the home office, and the commissioner of police were willing to disregard the law although threatened with a suit to remove them from office.

Thousands of Catholics from all over England have come to London to witness the pageant, but such a bitter feeling has been engendered that the Catholic leaders are counselling the abandonment of this feature.

COURT OF APPEALS.

The Court of Appeals at Staunton yesterday issued a restraining order, forbidding Circuit Judge Skeen, of Lee county, to call a special election to vote on the removal of the courthouse from Jonesville to Pennington Gap, until the court has reached a final decision in the case. Other business transacted follows:

Buena Vista Extract Company vs. Hickman; argued and submitted.

Reed vs. Reed, argued for appellee, and submitted.

Norfolk and Western vs. Stuart's Milling Company; transferred to Richmond.

Next case to be argued will be Hamilton's administratrix vs. Allegheny Ore and Iron Company and Seal vs. Virginia Portland Cement Company.

A writ of error was granted in the Farmers' Manufacturing Company against A. A. Woodworth, which comes from the City Circuit Court of Norfolk. The litigation involves a dispute concerning an amusement device known as "the revolving parachute," which was to have been operated at the Jamestown Exposition. The contracting corporation claims it spent $7,500 on the contrivance, but that it was never safe. The company seeks to recover this amount.

A writ of error was also granted by the court in the case of Mrs. Maud L. Wright against the Seaboard Air Line Railroad, from the judgment of the Nansemond Court. The plaintiff lost in the lower court. In flagging a train, with her mother, Mrs. Wright claims the train struck her mother, killing her instantly, and hurling her corpse against her, causing injuries which confined her to a hospital for weeks.

For a Sprained Ankle.

A sprained ankle may be cured in about one-third the time usually required, by applying Chamberlain's Liniment freely, and giving it absolute rest. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

NELSON WINS.

Battling Nelson registered another victory over Joe Gans at San Francisco, yesterday afternoon, beating the negro in 21 rounds of fierce and vicious fighting. Unlike their previous fight on July 4, Nelson did not get home a knockout punch, Gans simply could not strive against nature, and like Bob Fitzsimmons, when the latter fought Jack O'Brien, was forced to acknowledge defeat.

In the twenty-first round the former lightweight champion went to the floor from sheer weakness. He tried hard to regain his feet, but only succeeded in getting up after the fatal 10 seconds had been counted. Even had Gans managed to arise before the count, it is probable that he would not have been able to continue.

This was the third battle between Nelson and Gans. Gans winning the first in 42 rounds on a foul and Nelson the second in 17 rounds by a knockout.

Gans said after the battle: "I made one fight too many. Nelson is a tough boy and beat me fairly."

Nelson declared: "Gans was tougher than before. He was in good shape. I will never fight a colored man again."

Referee Smith said: "Gans was all in after the ninth round. Gans, I believe, did not know he was counted out."

After two nights and days, in which they trailed men and women alleged to be implicated in a hugh baggage and jewelry theft game, railroad and local detectives were rewarded in Richmond when a woman yesterday, who says she was the wife of F. F. Hillery, who committed suicide or was murdered in the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, confessed that she was the financial support of a gang of confidence men, baggage and jewelry thieves, of which Horace R. Courtland, wanted in many cities, and for whom a reward of $5,000 is offered, is the alleged head.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB.

An interesting meeting of the Bryan, Kern and Carlin club was held at the office of Col. Francis L. Smith, on south Royal street, yesterday afternoon, with Mr. Samuel G. Brent in the chair. The secretary, Mr. R. S. Barrett, was present as were Col. F. L. Smith, Mr. Thomas A. Fisher and Capt W. H. Sweeney. Mr. James R. Caton, one of the vice presidents, was absent owing to his attendance on the Bar Association in Seattle. The following were chosen as committees from each ward:

First ward—Messrs. John H. Trimyer, John A. Marshall and Chas H. Callahan.

Second ward—Messrs. R. D. Brumback, E. F. Lawler and Samuel L. Monroe.

Third ward—Messrs. S. P. Fisher, Fred J. Paff, and Thos. W. Robinson.

Fourth ward—Messrs. Frank C. Spinks, Jas. B. Fitzgerald and Oscar F. Carter.

The club could not have selected a better or stronger committee for the work assigned them. They are all active democrats, never flinching when called upon to support the standard bearer of their party—no matter who he is or the section of the country from which he comes.

The meeting of this executive committee will be held at Colonel Smith's office Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The club will hold a mass meeting at Sarepta Hall on Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

The voters of this city who intend to stand by the regular nominees of the democratic party are requested to attend the meeting on Saturday night and enroll their names.

THE BALLOON.

As stated in the Gazette of that day, Orville Wright yesterday at Fort Myer made an unprecedented flight of 57 minutes and 31 seconds in the morning, only to excel it by 4 minutes and 44 seconds last evening.

The flight of 62 minutes and 15 seconds gives Mr. Wright pre-eminence in the aeronautical world, as it was almost half an hour longer than any made by a rival aviator.

More wonderful and noteworthy than these flights, however, was the third ascension of the day, made while the full moon was mounting the skies. Aviator Wright took Lieut. Frank Lahm up with him and circled over the parade grounds six and a half times. The moonlight excursion lasted 6 minutes and 26 seconds, which is the longest an aeroplane ever remained aflight while carrying more than one person.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Jim Madden, arrested by Officer Beach, charged with being drunk in the street, forfeited $5 collateral.

Matthew Williams, arrested by Officer Talbot, for being drunk in the street, was fined $5.

Edward Cutley, arrested by Officers Henderson and Sampson, for begging, was fined $5.

James Edmonds, colored, arrested by Officer Knight, for assaulting and cutting Thomas Tebbs, was fined $50.

John Douglass, colored, arrested by Officer Bell, for contempt of court, was fined $2.

TOURING THE COUNTRY.

Messrs. Edgar C. Ruth and William H. Hope, of Pittsburg, who are touring the country on a wager of $10,000 each in three years arrived in this city yesterday and were warmly welcomed by Mayor Paff, who looked out for their comfort. They intend make 14,000 miles in three years and if they are caught riding on any vehicle or train a Pittsburg paper will give the informer $500. After spending the day in the city they left for Richmond. They are required to secure the signature of the postmaster in each town or city through which they pass. They are prohibieid from asking or receiving alms.

TRAINS DELAYED.

Travel on the new highway bridge over the Potomac was delayed from about 6:50 until 7:30 o'clock last night by an accident to the draw, which had been opened to allow a vessel to pass. When the draw swung into position it was found that something had happened to the electrical apparatus by which it was operated. This morning about 8 o'clock the milk train ran off the track at the intersection of Prince and Royal streets and travel was delayed over an hour.

VISITED THE CITY.

Robert N. Harper, jr., president of the American National Bank, of Washington, spent part of the day yesterday in Alexandria with Mr. Victor Emerson going over the details of the new model motor car they are building under Mr. Emerson's improvements, which they will shortly manufacture on a larger scale. Mr. Harper has been visiting several of the large cities north looking into the merits of leading makes and expressed himself as confident that the work going on in Alexandria was top notch and a little ahead of any he saw elsewhere.

PARTRIDGE RELEASED ON BAIL.

The case of R. H. Partridge, of Fauquier county, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, which was to have come before United States Commissioner R. P. W. Garnett at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, was postponed until today, he having given a temporary bond of $200 for his appearance. This morning Partridge went to Washington where he appeared in the U. S. Court and gave bond in the sum of $2,500 each on two counts for his appearance at the October term of the U. S. Court in this city.

Investigation by the district attorney's office in Washington into the operations of Partridge, indicted by the grand jury on charges of false pretenses, show, it is alleged, that Partridge interested in his projects a score of Washington priests, United States senators, representatives, a Supreme Court justice, and men prominent in government circles are believed to be on his lists. Father Eugene Hannan, pastor of St. Martin's Church, who swore out the warrant for Partridge's arrest, charging him with embezzlement of $9,000, says the defendant's books, confiscated by the district attorney, contain the names of men prominent in national life. Partridge was arrested at his home near Warrenton, about three weeks ago, and when his case was called Tuesday before United States Commissioner R. P. W. Garnett, of this city, his attorneys asked for a postponement, which was granted. Partridge is said to have represented himself as the owner of large tracts of land in Virginia, West Virginia and Kentucky, and to have solicited investment, offering large dividends.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mr. Gus Wedderburn last night celebrated his 37th birthday at the home of his parents at Wedderburn Station, Fairfax county. In addition to a large number of his immediate neighbors, including Mr. and Mrs. Bukey, there were present from a distance the Misses Slaughter, of Seminary Hill; Miss Ball, of Baltimore, and the Messrs. Addison, of Prince Georges county, Md. Mr. Wedderburn will leave on the 15th instant to take charge as chemist of a large sugar plantation in Cuba, where he will probably remain about six months.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Little Coxswain of the Varsity Eight" will be the attraction at the Alexandria Amusement Company tonight. Added to this will be other pictures of an interesting nature. The specialty tonight is first class and should be seen by everyone.

The Opera House still delights the people with its change of programme nightly, and judging from the crowds who attend the entertainment speaks for itself.

There was a very large attendance at the Elite Picture Co. last night and by special request it will repeat Monte Cristo tonight.

ARMY OFFICER DISORDERLY.

Capt. Frank A. Cook, U. S. A., was put on trial before the court-martial at the Washington barracks yesterday on a charge of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman while on a car of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway on August 4 last. Several witnesses testified that he was disorderly and was only subdued through the efforts of a constable and six passengers

SWIMMING POOL.

The bids for the construction of the gymnasium and swimming pool addition to the Young Peoples' Building of the M. E. Church South were opened last night. Messrs. J. D. Knight and Thomas Nelson were the lowest bidders. The contract has not been let as yet, the committee having these gentlemen's bids under consideration. They will reach a conclusion shortly.

MATTHEW INCARCERATED.

Although Mat Williams told Justice Caton this morning "that telephonic communication with Mr. Owen Nugent would be detrimental to Officer Talbott's remarks" the judge was constrained to believe the officer and Mat went down. It was the same old story told oft before. Mat had been taking a little too much off the top and became intoxicated. Justice Caton fined him $5.

TO REVOLUTIONIZE SPEED.

The lightest engine for its power that has been constructed in this country has been designed and is now being built by Victor L. Emerson at the Steam Pump Company. The engine will be about 90 horse power and will weigh about 300 pounds complete. The material for its construction was imported from France and represents the highest tensile strength known in steel. Every detail of its construction has been carried to the limit and great results are looked for when it is placed in a paper fiber boat of light construction that Mr. Emerson is building to compete in the international races this fall at Palm Beach, Fla.

SEASON OPENED.

With the advent of that most palatable of fall and winter dishes, the popular establishment of Rammel Bros., alive to everything first class, is prepared to cater to the most fastidious in the preparation of the oyster. Nothing is so appertizing, nothing more tempting, than this bivalve, especially when prepared by adepts at the art. The dining room service of Rammel's Hotel and Cafe is unexcelled in this section. The fried, stewed, scalloped, and raw oysters placed before the purchaser are of a quality that deserves notice.

Ladies fine Oxfords, Court ties, and Colonial ties, Tan, Patten Kid and Vici reduced. $2.50 grade $1.98, $3.50 and $4.50 grades $2.98. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

OLYMPIAD.

The Junior Olympia of Athletics and Horse Tournament held at the Horse Show grounds, near Manassas, yesterday, was witnessed by between fifteen hundred and two thousand people, and in every way measued up to expectations. Prof. R. R. Powell, of Gordonsville, delivered the address and Mr. C. A. Sinclair made the coronation speech. Many people from this city witnessed the races, which were very interesting.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.

It is said an attempt was made last night to rob the Alexandria Electric Plant at the foot of Wolfe street of a quantity of brass. The articles had been taken and placed conveniently for the thieves but one of the fireman, Mr. Luther Hayden, came on them and they made their escape. No one has been arrested in connection with the matter.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Mrs. Jennie Kramer, today through her attorney, Mr. L. H. Machen, entered suit in the Circuit Court for this city, against her husband, Harry Kramer, for absolute divorce and the custody of her child. No grounds are set forth in the papers.

SCHOOL PERMITS.

The clerk of the City School Board this morning commenced the issuing of permits to colored children to attend the public schools and during the day issued 294 permits—130 to boys and 164 to girls. On the corresponding day last year 289 permits were issued—134 to boys and 155 to girls. Permits will be issued to colored children again tomorrow.

CARS DERAILED.

On account of spreading rails several coal cars were derailed in the yards of the Southern Railway this morning. There was a delay of business of several hours, but no damage was done.

DROWNED FROM CANAL BOAT.

John Lucas, colored, who lived on north Pitt street, was drowned this morning from a canal boat in the canal at Georgetown. His body was recovered.

ALEXANDRIA COLLEGE.

The faculty of the Alexandria College of the Oriental University has been constituted as follows: John J. May, A. M., dean; Helmut P. Holler, Ph. D.; Nancy Groh, Louise M. Holler, S. O. B. If necessary, these professors will be assisted by Albert H. Postel, Ps. D., Frank M. Johnson, Ph. D., and others.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A company of artillerymen from Fort Myer passed through the city this morning on its way to Fort Hunt.

Mr. M. B. Harlow has sold to Mr. W. H. Semms a lot on the west side of Columbus street, between Madison and Montgomery.

At a meeting of Fitzgerald Council, Knights of Columbus, last night, it was decided to celebrate Discovery Day, October 14, in a fitting manner.

Attention is called to the advertisement of R. Lee Field, the clothier, of fall goods. A visit to his new store, 612 King street, and an inspection of his stock will convince one that it is the place to by gents' furnishings.

WAS BALD SIX YEARS.

Three Months of the New Scientific Treatment Restored His Hair.

Baldness is caused by dandruff, which is caused by a germ. Kill the germ and it is almost certain that hair will grow again, if the follicle has not been totally destroyed. Nels Peterson, of Lime Spur, Mont., says "I had been bald six years, and had tried all kinds of 'cures,' but without any benefit whatever, until I tried Herpicide November 16, 1899. I began using Herpicide, and in three months a fine growth of hair covered my head completely." Ask your druggist for Herpicide. Everybody can have luxuriant, glossy hair, if Herpicide is used thoroughly. Take no substitute.

Sold by Ernest L. Allen & Co., agents Two sizes 50c and $1.00. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. 91

THE OMAHA TRAGEDY.

Charles Edward Davis of Omaha, Nebr., was late yesterday evening placed under arrest in connection with the mystery surrounding Dr Rustin's death. Davis is the famous "other man" with whom Mrs. Rice testified Dr. Rustin had a compact to give him enough poison to kill himself, and in return the other man was to shoot and kill Rustin before taking the poison. At the police station Davis was booked simply as a suspicious character, and was released on $5,000 bail, furnished by his brother, Fred H. Davis, vice-president of the First National Bank of Omaha. The coroner's jury returned a verdict after two hours deliberation, deciding that Dr. Rustin was shot by a man, but was unable to fasten it on anyone.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 10.—Following the return by the coroner's jury of a verdict in the Rustin murder case recommending that Charles E. Davis be held, he is out on bonds today after having been taken into custody by the police. He will be given a formal hearing in a few days. Fred Davis stated today that he does not take seriously the attempt of the police to connect his brother with the Rustin murder, declaring Dr. Rustin had used his brother as a "stoolpigeon" to further his plans to end his own life.

DANGEROUS DELAYS

A few minutes lost sometimes means a fortune gone. Unreliable watches often cause loss of life and property, broken engagements, missed trains and other troubles. The watches we offer are made according to scientific principles of the best material to be had, and often run for years with little attention. They will not "throw you down" at a critical time. You won't have such troubles if you will let us help you make a selection.

QUAKER WHEAT BERRIES for sale at 7c package; fresh goods, by J. C. MILBURN

Alexandria Gazette.
THURSDAY EVENING, SEPT. 10, 1908

Worst of All.

Mr. Lane, Mr. Hobart and Mr. Meek had been off fishing the day before. They had gone unexpectedly from the postoffice, where they met, and neither Mrs. Lane, Mrs. Hobart nor Mrs. Meek had been informed of their whereabouts until nightfall. "And it did beat all what poor luck we'd had!" said Mr. Lane when the three friends met the next day.

"I tried to explain to Sadie that we kep' staying in the hopes of fetching home something that would show why we'd stayed, but she said we'd acted like a parcel o' yearlings and it would be one while before she'd have a hot apple pie for my dinner again and dumplings. She ran me uphill and down, I tell ye!"

"Maria spoke of my clothes," said Mr. Hobart forlornly. "She pointed out the way the dampness had cockled that coat I had on. She said 'twouldn't ever be the same again and if I knew of anybody that was going to spend summer days heating great irons and pressing out clothes for a man like me she didn't!"

"Marthy never said a word," said Mr. Meek as the other two men turned to him, but as they remarked with one accord, "That's the kind of wife to have!" Mr. Meek looked much depressed.

"The only trouble is," he added, "she hasn't spoken yet, and I don't know when she will."

She Drew the Line.

Seeking redress for domestic troubles, a negro woman who resembled nothing so much as she did the "before taking" half of an antifat remedy appeared at court.

"I's a wronged woman," she hissed in a give-me-back-those-papers voice. "Ah want redress."

"What's the trouble?" inquired the sympathetic judge.

"It's 'bout mah ole man. He's done been cayin' on high wif a lot uv dese niggah gals, an' it's got so bad twill Ah don' see him more'n once a week. Somephin's got t' be done."

The judge's eye held a crafty gleam. "You are seeking a divorce—a legal separation?" he questioned.

"Go 'long, man! Divo'ce nothin'! Think I'm gwine t' gin him what he wants and 'low dat man who dispote all his cussedness is de handsomest niggah in Kansas City t' go skyshootin' roun' 'mong dem gals? No, sah. Ah don' want no divo'ce ner dat legal septitution yer's talkin' 'bout. What Ah wants is an injunction!"—Kansas City Independent.

Mary Was Spoiled.

A doctor in one of the West Philadelphia children's homes tells the story of a woman who came to him one day in a most perturbed state of mind. She had taken home her daughter of five years the week previous, after a stay of a year in the home, and found she had an elephant on her hands. "Oh, sir," she said to the doctor, "whatever can I do with Mary? You have made her far too grand for her own home. Why, the first day she was back she refused to be dressed in the morning till she had a bath; then she would eat no breakfast whatever because she wanted fruit and some 'serious food' first, and, last of all, she put a saucer of water at her place at the table and she dips her fingers in that every few minutes. Sure, doctor, I don't know what I'll do," and the woman passed out, shaking her head as if the problem was certainly too much for her.—Philadelphia Record.

The Poor Member.

"Brother Lastly," said the spokesman, "I have an unpleasant duty to perform. There is a report that you have said that one of the best and most worthy members of our congregation is unable to attend service often on account of not having good enough clothes. We have come to ask the name of that member. We don't know of any such person, and a report of that kind is likely to reflect upon us as a congregation that does not look after its poor but worthy members. Will you tell me who it is?"

"Certainly, brethren," replied the Rev. Mr. Lastly, with a brave attempt to be cheerful, "it's my wife."

Playing Goethe Three Ways.

"I made a bad break today."

"How was that?"

"There is a Chicago woman visiting Julia Dean, and while I was there she insisted upon talking about Gerty. Pretty soon I asked her if Gerty was her daughter. You should have seen her flare up! And then I somehow found out she meant Goaty."

"Who?"

"Oh, you know—the great German author."—Somerville Herald.

His Modest Request.

A man once asked Thackeray to lend him 5 shillings, which he would convert into £20,000. Asked how, he explained that he knew a young woman with £20,000 who he knew would marry him if he asked her, but he had pawned his teeth and wanted 5 shillings to redeem them in order to propose effectively.

The Reason.

"Why doesn't Smith call in his family physician? Has he lost confidence in him?"

"No; the doctor has lost confidence in Smith!"—Lippincott's.

Books and Titles.

The more accomplished way of using books at present is to serve them as some do lords—learn their titles and then boast of their acquaintance.—Jonathan Swift.

Our lives are half spent before we know what living means.—New York Press.

Best Treatment for a Burn.

If for no other reason, Chamberlain's Salve should be kept in every household on account of its great value in the treatment of burns. It allays the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a severe one, heals the parts without leaving a scar. This salve is also unequaled for chapped hands, sore nipples and diseases of the skin. Price, 25 cents. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

The Andromeda Nebula.

One of the most astonishing objects in the heavens, especially when photographed, is the great nebula in the constellation Andromeda, which is visible as a misty speck to the naked eye. It has long puzzled astronomers, because while its structure—a series of vast rings surrounding a central mass—suggests a gaseous constitution, its spectrum is continuous, resembling that of the sun. It has been suggested that it may be composed of stars constituting a universe external to ours. Recent studies of its parallax, however, indicate that it is nearer to us than some of the well known stars, such as Capella, and Mr. J. Ellard Gore, the English astronomer, points out that if the Andromeda nebula were assumed to be an external universe, having a diameter comparable with that of the Milky way, its mass would be forty million million million times the mass of the sun. This is regarded as incredible and so may be taken as an additional argument in favor of the view that this nebula is a member of our system.—Youth's Companion.

A Curious Superstition.

There is a curious superstition common to Shetlanders and Cingalese. How islanders so wide apart—some 15,000 miles—managed to adopt each other's views one does not know, but here is the fact. The rice cultivators of Ceylon and the fishermen of Shetland resemble each other in one or two rather remarkable points. They refrain from speaking of the implements of their calling by their names. They call them something else, by names known only to themselves. The reason is that if the evil spirit were to think that they were speaking of spades and rakes or of nets and hooks he would be tempted to damage them or even to appropriate them. The train of thought is the same with both races: "There is an evil spirit always on the lookout for opportunities of doing mischief. He even hears what we say. If we let him understand that we are talking about our implements and tools, we shall direct his attention to them and shall suggest to him a way of doing an injury. Therefore we will agree to call a boat or a spade by some fancy name known only to ourselves."

Coronets.

The coronet of a duke consists of alternate crosses and leaves, the leaves being a representation of the leaves of the parsley plant. The princes of the blood royal also wear a similar crown. The state headgear of a marquis consists of a diadem surrounded by flowers and pearls placed alternately. An earl, however, has neither flowers nor leaves surmounting his circlet, but only points rising, each with a pearl on the top. A viscount has neither flowers nor points, but only the plain circlet adorned with pearls, which, regardless of number, are placed on the crown itself. A baron has only six pearls on the golden border, not raised, to distinguish him from an earl, and the number of pearls render his diadem distinct from that of a viscount.

A Bit of Blue Sky.

Professor John Tyndall, who, with many great gifts, possessed a singular skill in devising and conducting beautiful experimental illustrations, actually produced in 1869 a bit of blue sky in the lecture room. In a glass tube three feet in length and three inches in diameter he exhausted the air until it was less than one-tenth the density of the atmosphere we breathe and represented the rarer air high overhead. Into this exhausted air he introduced nitrite of butyle vapor, which is extremely volatile. Then a strong beam of light in a room otherwise dark was passed through the mixture, and in the glass tube there glowed a beautiful blue cloud, rivaling in color the finest Italian sky. Here was blue sky brought down to earth.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

"I must tell you my experience on an east bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to La Grande, Ore., writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a death-like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whisky. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrœa Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into La Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into La Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car."
